

Application for a BOOK held at the University Collections Facility

The physical item will be brought back to the Library to allow you to consult it and do selective copying.

Please note that under copyright legislation, you may make a single copy of one article or chapter OR 10% of the whole part (whichever is the greater). Any such copy must be for your own study and not distributed to anyone else.

Please print legibly and provide as many details as possible, otherwise there will be delays in filling your request. At worst, we may not be able to contact you.
